

These are photos from the Collie Club of Kentucky's Fall Specialty Show on 10/17/2009. All photos on this site are "samples" only and are watermarked to prevent theft. Actual prints will be made from larger and more detailed originals that do not contain the "sample" watermark.

8X10 Photo prints are available for purchase at a cost of $17 each plus $3.00 shipping and handling.

If you wish to save a little money and print the photos yourself, you can purchase a digital copy of the photos at a cost of $8.00 each. Once payment is received, we will make the FULL version of your photo available for you to download (Usually within 24 hours). The upside to this is that you own the digital photo and therefore you would be able to produce as many prints as you want from it.

If you wish to order a particular print / photo, you may do so by adding the photo to your cart on the web site and continuing through to purchase. These types of purchases are made through PayPal.com and can be done using your major credit card if you like. You do not have to have a PayPal account to make a purchase.
